

The Art of Learning

The Mitten Trees at both campuses were very full, thanks to the generosity of the CAA community.

One of our favourite traditions at CAA is the mitten tree. Students were asked to bring in new hats or mittens to decorate the school tree. On the 17th of December, the winter gear was donated to In From The Cold. This was a great opportunity for students to help those less fortunate and learn about the spirit of giving.

CAA's Education Centre were in the Top 10 finalists in this year's CBC Music's Canadian Music Class Challenge!

"Crabucket" - Calgary Arts Academy #CBCMusicClass

Ms. Leung's Year 8/9 class put together an online art auction to raise money for the local youth shelter, Avenue 15 that ran from December 9 to January 3.

Nicely done!

Ms. Katie's Year 2/3 students completed these paintings of the Taj Mahal.

Beautiful!

Mr. Lapointe and Ms. Hailey provide a physically distanced workout for some Education Centre students.

The workout was also streamed so our online students could participate.

As the 2020 school year was drawing to a close, several ambitious Year 6 students decided that their classmates deserved an afternoon of activities. Given the valuable leadership and learning opportunities, the teaching team gave unanimous approval.

These images provide some insight into one of the highlights of the afternoon ... snow gnome building, which included snow carvings of rock creatures, ducks and dragons as well as gnomes of every sort!

Storybook Theatre's live, recorded production of Annie the Musical is currently available for streaming. Calgary Arts Academy has purchased streaming codes for students in Year 1-10 to view the production. Teachers will share and enjoy this production at different times. If your child has not watched it yet, not to worry, their opportunity will happen in January. If you wish to find out more about the production, check out their website, www.storybooktheatre.org. Congratulations to Free Bicknell, one of CAA's Year 7 students on her enthusiastic performance in this production.
